

DODD 4500.09E, Transportation and Traffic Management, directs USTRANSCOM to be the publisher of the Defense Transportation Regulation. Excerpts from DODD 4500.09E follow:

References: (c) DoD 4500.9-R, "Defense Transportation Regulation" current edition (hereby renamed as DTR 4500.9-R, "Defense Transportation Regulation")

1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE This Directive:

1.2. Renames Reference (c) and directs the Commander, U.S. Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM), as the single-manager for common user transportation, to develop, publish, and maintain Reference (c). All users of the Defense Transportation System shall comply with Reference (c).

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.6. The Commander, USTRANSCOM, shall:

5.6.3. Coordinate changes and updates to Reference (c) with the Assistant Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Transportation Policy, and as appropriate with the Joint Staff, Military Departments, and Defense Logistics Agency representatives.

Please note that when citing the DTR, the proper reference is "DTR 4500.9-R," not "DOD 4500.9-R."

The DTR is published in seven parts as follows:

Part I: Passenger Movement
Part II: Cargo Movement
Part III: Mobility
Part IV: Personal Property
Part V: Customs
Part VI: Intermodal
Part VII: Human Remains

To ensure currency, we have not posted the DTR at this site. Please find it at <http://www.transcom.mil/dtr/part-i/> and select the part you are interested in.
