

USTRANSCOM Science and Technology

Dense Pack Access Retrieval and Transit (DPART)

Project Summary: Project provides the capability to quickly project, selectively access, reconstitute and redeploy flexible, scalable and tailorable forces and logistical support across the range of military operations.

Current Status: Approved FY13 USTRANSCOM funded effort. Joint Capabilities Technology Demonstration

Return on Investment: Selectively access and retrieve cargo and equipment, specifically twenty-foot equivalent unit (TEU) International Standard Organization (ISO) containers and large wheeled vehicles (LWV) for operations requiring a partial off-load or specific items.

Duration of project: FY13-FY15

Participants: United States Pacific Command and United States Marine Corps (USMC)

Project advocacy (funding or otherwise): USMC